Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-10 drawn to an anti-coagulant comprising a polysaccharide of formula (1), classified in classes 514, 424 and 536, subclass various.
- II. Claims 11 and 12, drawn to a medical equipment represented by a catheter, an injector for collecting blood; an artificial organ; and an infusion pack or an infusion tube treated using the blood contact face-treating agent of Group I, classified in class 600, subclasses various.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are directed to related product. The related inventions are distinct if the inventions as claimed do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants; and the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, Group II is drawn to a medical equipment to use the product of Group I as treating agent, which is unrelated to an anti-coagulant comprising a polysaccharide of formula (1), of Group I.

Although the inventions are classified in the same class and sub-class, searching the two groups of inventions constitutes a burdensome search, as a thorough search comprises a search of foreign patents and non-patent literature as well as the appropriate U.S. patent classifications. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. It is noted that examination of the two independent and distinct inventions would indeed impose an undue burden upon the examiner in charge of this application.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(h).

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention. In Group II, claim 12, a medical equipment represented by the following species:

(I) a catheter, an injector for collecting blood; (II) an artificial organ; and (III) an infusion pack or an infusion tube.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 11 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

A telephone call was made to Michael Davis on 09/01/06, to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.
